PETITIONING THE COURT

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- 1 The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'The defendant shall follow the directions of the U.S. Probation Office regarding any contact with children of either sex, under the age of 18. The defendant shall not obtain employment or perform volunteer work which includes, as part of its job/work description, contact with minor children. The defendant shall not maintain, within his or her residence or within any outside establishment within his/her control or custody, a collection of films, slides, pictures, tapes, videotapes or other form of pictorial representation whose subject matter involves minor children of either sex and can be deemed to be pornographic. The probation officer shall have the right of reasonable search of the defendant, his/her residence, or any other establishment within the defendant's custody or control, and shall, if necessary, request the assistance of other law enforcement personnel to enforce the provisions of this special condition.'

On several unspecified dates the offender had contact with, and unsupervised access to, three minor children in the home of a friend. The probation office was never informed of the contacts. The offender has been charged with aggravated assault on one of these children while the child was approximately age five.

2 The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'The defendant shall not possess, procure, purchase or otherwise obtain access to any form of computer network, bulletin board, Internet, or exchange format involving computers unless specifically approved by the U.S. Probation Office. Any dispute as to the applicability of this condition shall be decided by the Court.'

On several unspecified dates the offender assisted a friend with the friend's computer. The offender never made the probation office aware of this activity.

3 The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On June 16, 2006, the offender was arrested pursuant to a complaint filed by the Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office charging the offender with aggravated sexual assault of a minor and endangering the welfare of a child less than the age of 16. Charges are pending.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
